

FINE BAND CONCERT

But Unless More Money Can Be Raised They Must Stop.

The Chamber of Commerce band gave the fourth of their concerts in the park last evening. Following was the program:

1. March--Coronation.
  2. Overture--Offenbach No. 2.
  3. (a) Aisere from Ill Trovatore.
Duet for cornet and baritone; (b) Anvil
Chorus from Ill Trovatore.
  4. Waltz--Taut Paris.
  5. Salvation Army Patrol.
  6. March--The Promenade.
  7. Medley--Popular Kentucky.
  8. Gavotte--The Little Charmers.
  9. Soldiers' Chorus and march from
Wm. Tell.
  10. March--A Warning Up in Dixie.
- Numbers 2, 3, 4 and 7 were especially fine.

As usual there was a large audience and this time they did not fail to show their appreciation. But inasmuch as appreciation alone cannot maintain our present very efficient and representative musical organization, it is necessary that the public give their most liberal support. Appeals have been made but next to nothing has been accomplished. The matter has come to this status--something must be done immediately or the open air concerts will be discontinued. Next week a solicitor will wait upon you for a subscription or contribution. Give the boys the support they justly deserve and let these entertaining concerts continue. Your generosity will do it.
